If you request something from TY'N Y FFYNNON, for example, booking information, a call back, or specific marketing materials, we will use the information you provide to fulfil your request. We may use information we collect about you to provide you with a personalised experience on our site, such as providing you with content in which you may be interested and making navigation on our sites easier.

Please be aware that it is TY'N Y FFYNNON general practice to monitor, and in some cases, record such interactions for staff training or quality assurance purposes, or to retain evidence of a particular transaction or interaction. TY'N Y FFYNNON does not sell, lease, or otherwise disclose your personal data to third parties. We may share your personal data if we have your consent to do so.

We may be obligated by law to disclose your personal data to certain authorities or other third parties. For example, to the police or other government agencies. Such measures include, where appropriate, the use of firewalls, secure server facilities, encryption, implementing proper access rights management systems and processes, careful selection of processors and other technically reasonable measures to provide appropriate protection for your personal data against unauthorised access or disclosure. Where appropriate, we may also take backup copies and use other such measures to prevent accidental damage or destruction to your personal data. If a particular part of TY'N Y FFYNNON website supports online transactions, we will use an industry standard security measure, such as the one available through "Secure Sockets Layer" ("SSL"), to protect the confidentiality and security of online transactions.
